A chosen rider, common evil, an item that can either destroy evil or make them stronger and a general theme of saving humanity. But I guess those are a common ingredient for a mediocre good book. I do agree with what a lot of people commented on the first book that the book should not be made to look like it's for a 10 year old.

CHASING EVIL | Kirkus Reviews

Touching Evil is dark, moody, and irresistible: it's like nothing else on television. And it's the best thing I've seen on TV in years. Absolutely brilliant. Robsen Green is outstanding in police-related films. This is one of my top 5 UK cop series and that's high praise because I've seen 50 of them.
